Apologies; Lyn Duncan Steven Duncan Bruce Key Dave Felsch

No new members or guests

Previous minutes adopted moved by Russell Kelly seconded by Di Vickery carried.

Welfare; no news.

Correspondence; none. Di checked the mail box to find no mail.

Treasurers Report; was tabled discussed and accepted.

Discussion re debit card was deemed to be a lot of work and risk when we have so few transactions, so not worth it for us. We continue with cheques and Internet transfers.

2 invoices for copy shop for our new Carrier Pigeon newsletter.

Rego's; we have 110 cars registerd and 54 members of BCVC

Events; Coffee and Cars at Summerland House Saturday 5th Aug.

Brunswick Heads Bowling Club 27th August for a lunch run.

Mark Prowse Editor of The Carrier Pigeon, handed out copies of the 1st edition. It is magnificent, better than he had described in his proposal. He will continue and we hope for an electronic version to email and send out to our neighboring clubs.

Mark will require stories and photo's to keep the interest flowing.

General Business; Santo discussed the Rego meeting the committee had about tightening compliance whilst not adding too much paper work onto the club member given some have multiple cars. More will be explained next month when Bruce is present, and repeated again further down the track.

Lindsay Smith has offered a Presidents Run. Suggesting 11th 12th 13th November or the following weekend. Ballina Lismore Uki to Harrisville destination for an overnight stay. Suggest talking to Ipswich Car Club for a Sunday meet up.

Cedric and Lindsey told us about their visit to the Lismore Powerhouse, which sounded very interesting and worth a visit if you are interested in big Generators. It is heritage listed and is near Bunning's Saturday visits are good.

Mark suggested we think about Christmas,

Rego Day will be Sunday 10th December at Ballina RSL Club, or following Tuesday.

Lindsey had a raffle for the attendant of the meeting, Mark Prowse won the Castrol T Shirt and stubbie holder.

Meeting Closed 8.00pm
