Treasures Report; Russell Kelly provided and read the P&L statement for year 2024-'25. They gave us a profit for the year, thank you Russell Kelly. They were moved by Russell Kelly and seconded by Santo Pennisi.

Committee; David Felch, vice president, orchestrated the voting of the new committee. All positions on the committee were open for change, President Lindsay Smith has served his 2 year term as stated in our constitution. Thank you Lindsay you have served us well and we appreciate your time in office.

Ian Cummins name has been put forward as a new President and has been voted in overwhelmingly as our new President, no one challenged him, he gratefully accepted. The other positions were not challenged, these positions have been resumed. The Treasurer would like to be relieved of his position, but was deemed incorruptible. If anyone likes keeping the books please step up next year. Russell Kelly has served long time. Mark Prowse has retired from his editorial position, and Janine Cullen has stepped up.

The new committee exist as such.
