Minutes of February Meeting: moved by Di Vickery and seconded by Russell Kelly

Member Welfare: No news is good news, all is well.

Correspondence In: 2 letters, ATO Notice of Assessment for the year 2025.
Also, Australia Post annual PO Box renewal $170

Treasurers Report: Income includes 3 memberships and rego's.

Outgoings include Fair Trading Fee

Term Deposit remains the same and will mature 11th March, to add or not to add, consensus is that we keep our funds in user account and roll term deposit over. For another 12 months. We currently have 3 cheques left and no more available. Option is to get a card to access funds to make payments. We voted do we trust Russell Kelly to hold and use this card for our club's purpose, the outcome was overwhelmingly positive, we trust Treasurer Russell Kelly. The motion was moved by Santo Pennisi and 2nded by Dianne Vickery.

Merchandise: Remains the same.

Registrations: We have 86 paid up vehicles registered at this point in time.

We have 44 members including 2 new members.

Reminder that if your club membership lapses, your car is not covered by registration.

Kit Cars that have components that do not belong to the year of the car, they do not comply with the classic or historic rego rules set by Transport NSW.

David Felsch again expressed his difficulty of getting his 4 vehicles RWC from Sth Ballina. We all have troubles to overcome with having multiple vehicles and how we manage, paying for them, garaging them and keeping them registered. No advice offered was of any relief to him
Note -Road worthies are valid for 6 months

Events: Summerland House had been booked for this Saturday meeting 7th March 8am

Eltham Pub Twilight Run has been rescheduled 27th March, would prefer a 5pm start time.

Proposed Run to Yamba Shores Tavern for Late April

Reminder to put in your diary, The Farm Byron Bay- 1st Sunday Month they have a car show.

Editor: Janine Cullen has produced our Autumn Magazine still glossy and loads of good easy reading in large print. Thank you Janine, your stories show the depth of our members and the stories they all have to tell.

Many thanks to Hilltop Auto's for their contribution for a colorful back page highlight. B-Line will come on board next edition to support the funding of our magazine.

General Business: Santo had an intruder who messed with his vehicles, it appeared they got disturbed and then frustrated and set the fire extinguisher onto them and made a big mess.

Webmaster Report: Not present today.

Meeting Closed 8.00pm
