End of an era at Trevan

Jobs saved as new dealership takes over in the heart of Lismore

FRANCIS WITSENHUYSEN

Francis.Witsenhuisen@northernstar.com.au

IT'S THE end of an era for Trevan Ford with new owners at both the Lismore and Ballina sites for the second time in its 109 year history.

But unlike former owner Andrew Bing, the new owners have not kept the Trevan name. Instead, new owners Frizelle Sunshine Automotive Group have renamed the dealership Northern Rivers Ford and Isuzu - Ballina and Lismore.

Frizelle's Lismore general manager Allan Potter said all of the 60 odd employees between the two sites had kept their jobs during the takeover.

"We've kept all the existing staff on because most of them are local residents and we don't want to cause any bad vibes by letting people go," Mr Potter said.

"We probably didn't need to keep them all, but we've kept them in their jobs... we will maybe move them around into other jobs if we need too."

The Queensland company recently expanded into New South Wales by going into business with large Sydney company Peter Warren Automotive Group.

"It's a big opportunity and we are thankful to have the opportunity to take over," he said.

"Trevan have had a great reputation on the Northern Rivers for years but keeping the name was never an option.

"Both Trevan signs are down - but the Isuzu signs have not come down yet."

Mr Potter, who oversees the two new Northern Rivers Ford and Isuzu sites and the existing Frizelle Automotive site in South Lismore said the company would aspire to "look after everybody and employ more people in the area".

"We are proposing in a year's time to bring the original Trevan site in Lismore over to the Frizelle's site in South Lismore - so we've got economy to scale," he said.

Previous owner Bob Trevan said it was a bitter-sweet day when the Trevan signs came down because "it was the end of a chapter but the legacy of Trevan Ford in the Richmond, Brunswick and Tweed valleys will always live on in the books of local history".

"It was sad day for me because I'd been working in that building my whole working life, which is about 65 years."

The end of an era but Bob is still around.

2019 Alstonville Anzac Day Parade

Eight cars from the NRVVCC assembled out the front of the Alstonville RSL Sub-Branch rooms to supply transport for veterans in their remembrance day parade. Organiser of the event, Bob Wilson, was very pleased with the number of cars, saying they added to the very well-supported day of remembrance.

It is an honour to support this remembrance day.

Invited by Barbara Day from the Tweed Valley Vehicle Restorers Club, 10 members in 4 club cars from NRVVCC met with 18 members in 8 cars from the TVVRC for lunch at the Eltham Pub.

A nice lunch set the atmosphere for members of both clubs to intermingle, swapping tales or just enjoying themselves in conversation.

A big thank you to Barbara Day.

Life member Marie Johnston arrived with her grandson Allan in his '34 Plymouth Coupe with his parents, Greg & Lyn in the dicky seat.

Ron Hawkins was chauffeured by his wife, Marilyn, in their '29 Dodge, Peter & Bev Henson's mode of transport was Bev's 1966 Volvo 122S &, with only 1 vehicle to choose from, Narelle & I arrived in our 1929 Chev.

A very enjoyable time was had by all.

Midweek Outing - Barry Blanch's Collection Ballina - 1st May, 2019

The day started wet and continued that way all day, but still 16 members gathered at Ballina Botanical Gardens where the weather broke and we were able to have our coffee hit or BYO morning tea.

We left the Gardens and made our way to Blanch's Bus Depot where we were met by Barry who showed us to his warehouse, the home of his International truck & Falcon utes. Barry explained the history of the vehicles and answered any questions.

From the Warehouse we went to another shed at the depot which housed a fully restored bus purchased new by Blanch's Bus Co. for the Brisbane Expo in 1988. A display of Wheelwright equipment, steam engines, blacksmith gear, butter making machine separators, etc. the list goes on.

An appreciation certificate was presented to Barry for his hospitality. An enjoyable outing was capped off with an impromptu lunch at Westower Tavern, Ballina.

McKay Easter Rally

Greg and I are just back from the McKay Easter Rally. We took the opportunity to combine a trip to visit Tom & Emily with McKay Easter Rally; We flew up and joined Tom in the Holden Torana. Sarina Beach is beautiful and we met friends old and new. It was lovely to see our son and Daughter in Law and enjoy a really good rally with them. We're inspiring to travel more.
