Monthly Meetings

Held at Jabour Park Club Rooms Minden St, South Grafton on the last Sunday of each month. See Coming Events for times.

All meetings are designated Club Authorised runs. You may drive your historic plated vehicles to and from the meetings.

President's Report

There has been much activity at the Club Grounds with the installation of a Dump Point to the Camp Grounds. Many thanks to the Club volunteers who put their time & effort into this project.

There has also been an Investment of gravel & Ramp, giving better access to the Oval, in preparation for the August Motorfest. Big thanks to Doug Davies for his time & machine for spreading of the gravel.

The Casino Beef Week display was well attended by our members with Russ Tange taking out the Best Sports Car with his Jaguar E Type.

Annual fees are now due & members should be aware if un-financial your vehicle on Historic Registration is not valid (i.e. un-registered) which attracts a healthy fine.

Any member requiring Club a name tag contact me, as I will be placing an order in the coming weeks.

Volunteers for the Motorfest in areas are still required: A schedule for the Canteen is displayed in the Club house & anyone able to give time please place your name on the board.

Regards,

Doug

June Lunch Run

By Robyn Dunstan

We had a great rollup of cars for the Urunga Club Run June 13th. It was the perfect winters day for a drive. With 20 hungry members having morning tea at the Idle Inn Nana Glen (not the Amble Inn Corinidi lol), it was a lovely venue and we all enjoyed our scones, cake and other treats.

After saying goodbye to Chris, Janine and Brian who had other engagements, it was off to the Urunga Pub for lunch. Unfortunately for Graham and Cheryl Benn on the way to Urunga, their ute misbehaved and was taken home on the back of a truck (fortunately they knew a guy with a tow truck). Sorry Graham that was unfortunate.

We continued onto the Urunga Pub and enjoyed a relaxing time over lunch with great company, plenty of humour, tall tales and lots of laughs all round.

Thanks to everyone for making it such a pleasant fun day.

Editor Note:

Esme Sprite wouldn't start the morning of the drive, flat battery, so I opted to take Arfa Car (short for half a car) a 1981 Daihatsu Handy Van...all 550cc/2 cylinders of fun. I was a little embarrassed to take Arfa along in such esteemed company but hey, what the heck.

I was pleasantly surprised how well Arfa went on the longest trip since he's been on in our company. My ears were ringing when we stopped at Nana Glen from the exhaust noise but that soon abated. Driving modern cars makes you lazy. You don't seem to notice the hills. Well, to Arfa, hills are mountains to be climbed. The experience took me way back to my youth! All good fun.

Driving through the traffic in Coffs, John and Jenny Porter overtook me in their Cooper S. Being an old Mini driver myself, I thought Arfa and I could catch them. I had Arfa wound up on the freeway from Coffs to the Urunga turn off and didn't see the others in the BP Service Station assisting the Benn's.

I arrived at the Ocean View Hotel Urunga and no-one was there. Firstly, I thought I was at the wrong Pub but a quick call to Lorraine Lloyd had me all sorted. Time for a loo break before everyone else got there.

Tremendously, fabulous day out! Thanks to Ian and Robyn for organising it.

Family Fun Day

By Lorraine Lloyd

A procession of 5 cars departed from Jabour Park at 9.30am. Drove down Prince Street and then out to Doug's place at Orchard Road Mountainview. Eugene and Liz were already there to meet us. John and Jenny Porter eventually joined us after a slight detour. We had a lovely morning tea surrounded by the wildlife and then the women went to visit Doug's neighbour who runs a card making workshop. Very talented ladies. Back to Doug's and we started to prepare the barbecue lunch. Had a lovely meal of barbecue meats, salads and potato and corn, followed by pancakes for dessert with strawberries, banana and BLUE RIBBON ice cream (a specialty of Jim's). A huge thank you to Ian and John for washing the dishes. The cricket score was nil all with no runs, no catches, no one out, no boundaries, because we were too relaxed to even consider starting. Kim and Lyn joined us later for a cuppa. Thank you to those members who attended namely, Doug and Lorraine, Ian and Robyn, Eugene and Liz, Jim and Barbara, Dick and Ena, Gary and Jenny, Jean and Leonie, John and Jenny, Peter and Jeanette, Kim and Lyn.

Jacaranda Festival - MEET, GREET, EAT

Car Club Vice President Kim Dahl & Jacaranda Festival Vice President Wendy Gibbs

The 2019 Jacaranda Festival officially kicked off Sunday 17/06/19 with the introduction to the community of our Queen Candidates and Junior Candidates. It will be a BIG year this year. Not only is it the Festival's 85th Anniversary but we have 7 Queen Candidates and 14 Juniors!

To mark this auspicious occasion, the Jacaranda Committee held a Meet Greet Eat in Market Square Grafton. The Committee invested in a Bar for now and the future. The Volk's Bar was made locally at the old brewery. The sign was made by Club Member Peter Buckler. The bar was opened by the Car Club's own Kim Dahl who is the great grandson of Henry Volk's. Henry Volk's brought the Jacarandas to Grafton and planted them down Pound Street. The rest is history!

Kim opened the Volk's Bar on behalf of the family.

Stay tuned to The Grille magazine for more Jacaranda Festival updates relating to the Car Club. Meetings are being held this week with regard to the Parade, the possibility of more cars in the parade, perhaps a call out to Square Riggers to ferry some special guests...
