President's Report

Due to recent changes with the Covid 19 allowances, the committee has decided to cancel August, September & October Monthly Meetings.

NEXT Meeting depending on ruling at the time will be November 29th 2020 which will be a Monthly / Annual General Meeting.

The Events Committee due to current regulations have dropped events also for the month's August, September & October 2020. Advice will follow as to future outings.

The shed / workshop is progressing very well with equipment being installed.

Four shelter tops have been erected with a concrete base around them. The remaining four will be erected in due course.

A top Job carried out by Club Member, Rod Green with his bobcat in clearing & drainage on the newly acquired lease on Vere Street, adjacent to the park grounds.

Our Wednesday group of volunteers has grown, thus allowing additional work to be carried out throughout the grounds.

Regards

Doug

Picnic Lunch at Red Rock

On Sunday 12th July with rain threatening we departed Jabour Park for a picnic lunch at Red Rock. 39 members and 21 cars headed off for our first outing in months. We set up and had morning tea and then relaxed till lunch time. Fired up the club barbecue and enjoyed lunch and a chat with all members. Rain did eventually fall after everyone had finished their lunch which caused an early exit. A great fun day had by all. Thank you to all those who attended.

Attendances were: Ken Norton, Dave & Judy Andrews, Peter Arnall, Jeanette Pulford, Bill & Robyn Coote, Leigh & Chris Harding, Bob Booth, Doug Davis, Lorraine Lloyd and mum, Geoff Howard, Doug & Jean Clark, Mick McArthur, Mark Maddrell, Ian Gibbs, Margaret Gallaher, Trevor & Rhonda Coleman, Graeme & Annette Hicks, Lloyd & Janeen Hampson, Jim & Barb Leslie, Ian & Robyn Dunstan, Col Rose, Jim & Rhonda Raven, Bruce & Laurie Cameron.

Ian Gibbs doing the right thing and social distancing. Maybe a bit too far.

Coffee Run to Harwood Hilton

On Thursday 23rd July we departed Jabour Park at 9.30am and headed to Harwood Pub for morning tea. With limited numbers we had 20 members and 12 cars. We travelled through Ulmarra and Brushgrove arriving at the pub at 10.30am. A very friendly publican welcomed the car club and thanked us for coming along. We had a lovely morning tea of scones with jam and cream or citrus cake. They sat us in an outside area and even accommodated Peters new dog Rick. On leaving the publican asked if we could all drive our cars in front of the pub so he could video it and put on their facebook site. You can view this on our facebook site. Thank you to Robyn Dunstan and Jenny Porter for organising this lovely morning. It was certainly nice to get away for a while.

Attendances were: Lorraine & Doug, Trevor Coleman, Luke Winters, Peter Arnall and Rick, Bruce & Laurie Cameron, Leigh Harding, Eugene & Liz Christiansen, John & Jenny Porter, Graham & Cheryl Benn, John McCleery, Greg & Sharon Robertson, Di Lambert, Robert & Helen Murgatroyd.

Progress at the Club Grounds

During the last few months there has been considerable work being done at our club grounds. The new shed has been completed, new picnic tables and shade shelters have been erected in the camping area, The area of Vere Street has been cleaned up and now the cement areas under shelters have all been poured. A huge thank you to all the members who give up their time and the use of their equipment to make the club grounds and camping areas as good as they are. WELL DONE TO YOU ALL.

I think we might need a bigger tow truck

Car Club enquiries for cars to be provided for special events and weddings.

There have been numerous enquiries for use of member's cars at special events.

Some members do not wish their vehicles to be used for outside events but any members who are willing to provide vehicles can list them appropriately.

I am willing to create a list of willing members and their vehicles, and when an approach is made, I would then contact those on the list to see if anyone was available.

I always stress that the vehicles are not for hire and they would only be driven by the member concerned. My car is free, people just pay me to drive at their wedding, and I turn up in an old Holden with a ribbon on it. It is up to the individuals concerned as to how any income is declared.

Any members wishing to be included on list can email me their details along with vehicle details.
