Carrier Pigeon; the 3rd edition has been distributed, a hard copy at the meeting. This was Marks initial commitment to produce 3 editions and what a stella job he has done. Stories and input have been slow to come in, he laments. We posed the question to continue, the cost would be $150 per printing costs. The vote was overwhelmingly accepted that he continue the good work. It was decided to create 3 per year given that Christmas and holiday time is out. It is imperative that we all contribute with photos and stories. Mark would particularly like feedback about the quiz and games, do you like them, his email address in in the front of the magazine

Meeting closed at 8.15pm
